For CRS purposes, is the entity a:

Financial institution¹ Active non-financial entity² Passive non-financial entity³ (PNFE)

If the entity is a PNFE, is any controlling person⁴ a tax resident in any other country than New Zealand?

Yes No

If yes, each controlling person must complete an individual self-certification. If the controlling person is specified on page 2 then please complete the individual sections(s) above. If the controlling person is not specified on page 2, please contact us for a self-certification form to complete. In either case, please indicate on the form what type of controlling person the individual is⁴.

- ¹ If the entity is a financial institution for FATCA purposes, it is likely (but not certain), to be a financial institution for CRS purposes.
- ² An active non-financial entity includes a listed company (and its related entities), government entities and international organisations. See the links below for the full definition.
- ³ A passive non-financial entity generally covers an entity that:
 - a. Is not a financial institution; and
 - b. Either derives predominantly (50% or more) passive income (as defined for CRS purposes) and/or predominantly has assets that produce or are held for the production of passive income.
- ⁴ A controlling person is defined as any natural person who exercises control over an entity. In the case of a trust, the settlor, the trustees, the protector (if any), the beneficiaries or class of beneficiaries, and any other natural person exercising ultimate control over the trust will be included. This means that the term may include a director, partner, trustee, settlor, beneficiary, protector of a trust, or other natural person exercising ultimate effective control over the entity.

For more information on CRS, and determining your status for CRS purposes, please see the Inland Revenue's website at www.ird.govt.nz/international/exchange/crs/crs-glossary/crs-glossary.html and www.taxpolicy.ird.govt.nz/topical-issues/implementing-aeoi. In addition to the above, you need to provide us with further information if there is a change in circumstances which render the below certification incorrect or unreliable. We may also request further information from you in the future for this purpose.
